Location & surrounding area:

The Plettenberg Bay is situated in the Western Cape.

Once, the Plettenberg Bay was called by its Portuguese discoverers "Bahia Formosa", which refers to the beautiful bay.

West of the city resides the Robberg Peninsula, a nature reserve, which is accessible by a number of hiking trails. It is the home of a large seal colony.

Also there is the opportunity to watch whales and dolphins from Plettenberg Bay, especially in July and December.
