Location & surrounding area:

Goodwood is a suburb of Cape Town, in South Africa. It is very easily accessible from all the highways available in this area. It is only 10 km from the city center.

This town was constructed in the early 20th century and more precisely in 1905. The initial idea was to make a racing center in here, and the very first name of the town was Goodwood Racecourse. Nevertheless, the idea was quickly abandoned.

The area is very well accessible via the railways that were built in 1905.
